I was delighted to take part in the latest of our Quality Conversations with care providers and other interested parties. The two sessions were aimed at services in the areas - Older People and also Services for Adults.

Among the items for discussions were new approaches to complaints, working collaboratively to support improvement in service delivery, emerging policy issues and implementing the Health and Social Care Standards.

The High Level Advisory Group on Care Scrutiny brought together interested parties to allow them to comment and advise us on on-going issues of mutual interest. The meeting as focused on the on-going discussion regarding the complaints process and incorporating the new Health and Social Care Standards into a Scrutiny Framework.

9.0 PROFESSOR TADASHI MATSUBASA - 12 SEPTEMBER

I was delighted to welcome Professor Tadashi Matsubasa who was visiting Scotland on behalf of the Japanese Ministry of Health Labour and Welfare to look at how we provided scrutiny and assurance surrounding services for children in care and early years.

I am greatly indebted to Board Member Anne Haddow who had organised Professor Matsubasa's visit and to CI staff who were able to provide so much helpful information.
