Become a young inspection volunteer

We inspect care and social work services to make sure they are high quality and meet the needs of people who use them. We believe we can make care better by working with people who have a personal experience of those services.

Is this you?

We're looking for young people with a personal experience of care. So, if you have used a care service, you could be just who we are looking for. You don't have to have qualifications – personal experience is what counts. You need to be aged 18–26 to apply.

How we work together

Your personal experience gives you a unique insight into care. You will join us on inspections to talk to children and young people using services. We know that they are more likely to share their honest views with you, because of your similar experience. You can make sure their views are an important part of the inspection and are included in the inspection report.

We will support you to be a young inspection volunteer and try to match you with services best suited to your experience. We will offer you training and work closely with you to support you in your work with us. We will pay your expenses and if you have additional needs, we will do our best to support you with these too.

What will you do as a young inspection volunteer?

- Take part in inspections of individual services and also of local authority areas.
- Talk to children and young people using services and record their views and opinions on the service they are getting.

- You may run focus groups to find out what children and young people think of their service.
- Meet with managers to find out how well children and young people are involved in developing and improving services.
- Help us to find out about corporate parenting.
- You may write a summary of what you found, for the inspection report.
- You will get training and support to do all of this.

What happens when you apply?

We interview you, check references and carry out criminal records checks.

If you are successful, you will get training and shadow inspections.
