Please tell us why you are interested in this post and why you want to be involved in improving services for young people?

Please tell us about your availability and if you are able to attend the training dates detailed in your application pack? (Please detail any commitments you currently have ie hours of work, education, training, clubs etc)

Please tell us briefly about your experience of social work services or care services. (Please do not disclose personal/sensitive information in this section. Simply provide details of which social work departments of care services you had contact with and rough details of how long this contact was for and how long ago this was).

Please tell us if you would need any additional support for this role.
Example: reading, writing, travelling independently

The second stage of your interview will involve meeting the team to discuss your skills and competencies in various areas. Please complete the questions below by giving yourself a mark for each of the following skills (10 being the highest and 1 the lowest). During your interview the team will ask you questions about why you decided upon that score. This is so that they can work out how best to support you in your role should you be offered the position.
